³⁵ A 4 February 1819 Deed of Trust between Powhatan Jones of Buckingham County 1st part, William Jones (son of Thomas) of the County of Campbell and Samuel Jones of Buckingham County reveals that William Jones has significant debts and to pay would have to sell the land he inherited from his father. Samuel Jones agrees to pay the debts if William Jones agrees to put the land and other property into trust with Powhatan Jones as trustee for the benefit of his wife Elizabeth who is Samuel Jones' sister, and her children. Samuel Jones can order Powhatan Jones to sell the land and slaves at any time and William Jones is to have "a support out of the property" by the trustee.
